Addendum

Roti Roti Art Center comes alive at the Buchanan for the Holidays Artisan Market. Peruse local artists and artisan creations, where you'll find handmade gifts and beautiful art. All ages are welcome!

Exhibit days and hours

November 29th, 2025, 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM. Vendor space will be assigned in the Fehlner Family Gallery, the Art Studio, and the Hess Gallery. At the Roti Roti Art Center (RRAC)

Set-up, take-down, and booth information

Set up on Friday, November 28th, 2025, at 3:00 PM – 7:00 PM. Other set-up times may be arranged, but vendors must be ready to do business by 10:00 AM on Saturday. Vendors will have access to the building at 9:00 AM on the day of the event. Booth spaces will be assigned according to logistical needs. Vendor space sizes vary, but will be approximately 8' x 8'. Electricity and water access are limited. RRAC will provide each vendor with a six-foot banquet table and one or two chairs. Vendors are responsible for their own table covering, signage, and displays.

Vendors will handle their own sales transactions and sales tax filing, as well as wrapping and packaging of goods. Merchandise must be original and created by the vendor. Sharing a booth with another artisan requires prior approval.

A kitchenette is available on-site, equipped with a microwave, refrigerator, and basic supplies for those who wish to bring their lunch or snacks.

Vendors are responsible for the take-down and removal of all boxes, etc. Take-down must occur at the closing of the event; no early take-down.

Parking

Vendors may unload goods in front of the building. Vendors will be asked to park their vehicles in a designated area on the day of the event.

Promotion

RRAC will promote the event through its website, newsletter, press releases, posters, and social media. Vendors are encouraged to cross-promote their clientele.

Cancellations and liability

Fees are non-refundable due to cancellations and no-shows. RRAC and the Artisan Market Committee accept no responsibility for loss, damage, or theft of merchandise.
